The most important part of any Masonic gathering is not the business, but the fellowship. We have meals before meetings to foster this fellowship.

This lodge is your lodge, and your friends are welcome— bring them to dinner. Please come out and enjoy the fellowship.

A mason does what he does to better himself and help others without expecting anything in return—what are you doing?

Several of our brothers from District 1, regularly and for almost 30 years, have been contributing their time to feeding the poor and in-need in Wilmington on Saturday mornings. They feed nearly 200 hungry men, women, and children every Saturday morning before 9am. And you can help. These people depend on the kindness of strangers. Our brothers are those strangers every week.

Help Share Our Message!

When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things. For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known. And now stays faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

Charity is what it's all about Brothers, be charitable to each other, and the world at large.

Get Your Freemason Secrets Here!

I recently started a new job and have the experience of meeting a bunch of new people who don't know anything about me. Inevitably they see my ring and ask me things like "is it ok for me to ask about Masons?" or "Oh you are a Mason... what is that about...it's all very secret..." I'm quick to tell them:

The true secrets of the Freemasons are just that: intimate moments, shared emotions, secret longings, and private beliefs between men who have formed a bond through a fraternity that supports and strengthens them through its teachings. Men from all walks of life and from disparate backgrounds come together in Masonry and call each other Brother. Some of those men truly become like brothers. They form trusting and resilient friendships. They share life's trials and tribulations. Thus is life. That is the truth of the Freemasons secrets.

Tell your curious friends and co-workers this, and share some of the nice stories you know about your brothers and how you have found friends in the world through our system of pre-vetting of like-minded men. You might win some new brothers, and demonstrate traits that will positively reflect on you and the fraternity.

If you haven't been to lodge in a while, please consider coming out again. We would love to have you back in your lodge.

So Mote It Be!

Jay Troy, Worshipful Master
